SOCIETY

Miss Clara Daniels has asked guests for a luncheon which she will give Thursday at her home on Topeka avenue, complimentary to Miss Mildred Guild and Miss Nellie Kaster, both of whom are to be April brides.

Mrs. Thomas S. Stevens will give a bridge party Thursday afternoon for Miss Kaster.

The alumnae Sigma Deltas are planning a party which they will give Monday night at the home of Mrs. James Hughes in Potwin. The affair is to be a dinner party followed by a play, written, staged and acted by the members.

W. W. Wright of Kansas City, divorcee, who has been studying domestic woes a good while, is to be married to Madeline McQueen of Salina, Kan., in April. Speaking out of his experience in weighing the causes of conjugal unhappiness, he outlines the duties of a husband who would avoid matrimonial difficulties.

Spent all of his evenings at home, and never leave his wife alone unless business necessity requires it.

Start the first of the morning.

Never talk in just about other women caring for him.

Try not to arouse his wife's jealousy; in fact, convince her that every bit of his affection is centered in her.

"My observation has been that clothes and food count for little, with the right kind of a woman, if a husband displays the proper amount of affection, and is considerate of her feelings and wishes. A man who thinks of the little things that women prize so much in everyday life, need never fear that a mother-in-law will come between them."

"This does not necessarily follow in all cases. The woman must be made of the right kind of stuff, or else any amount of husbandly affection and consideration will not hold them together."

A man who occasionally takes home a box of candy, a bunch of flowers or some other things that will make his wife think that he looks upon her with the same affection he does his mother, will find that his wife will bridge over all trouble that may arise between them.

"All women crave a certain amount of attention and caressing from their husbands, no matter how many years they have been married. When a man talks about some other woman who would care for him more, he is displaying a grave fault in his mind and their domestic tranquility. Jealousy does not arouse a flagging affection; it merely breeds bitterness and hate between husband and wife."

Wright and Madeline McQueen will be married April 16 at Salina, Kan.

The alumnae O.K.s gave a matinee dance today at McGee's hall.

For Purchasing Agent.

Washington, March 12.—It has been announced unofficially that Richard E. Edgerton of New Jersey had been agreed upon for appointment as purchasing agent for the postoffice department. The office carries a salary of $4,000 a year and has been vacant since January 6. Mr. Taft named Frederick H. Austin, a Democrat, for the place, but he was not confirmed. Under the law a designated official may act as purchasing agent for only thirty days and since February 6 the postoffice department has been unable to make a purchase of any kind or to enter into any contracts for supplies.

Fruit Crop Not Hurt.

Great Bend, Kan., March 12.—The fruit crop in this section, according to the fruit growers, has not been hurt any by the recent cold weather, and with favorable conditions this year should be large. Last year the crop was a failure.

They have a bowel washday.—That is all wrong. If you will take a teaspoonful of delicious Syrup of Figs tonight, you will never realize you have taken anything until morning, when all the poisonous matter, sour bile and clogged-up waste will be moved on and out of your system, thoroughly but gently—no griping—no nausea—no weakness. Taking Syrup of Figs is a real pleasure. Don't think you are drugging yourself; it is composed entirely of delicious figs, senna and other natural ingredients, and constant use can not cause injury.

Ask your druggist for "Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna," and look for the name, California Fig Syrup Company, on the label. This is the genuine—old reliable. Any other Fig Syrup offered as good should be refused with contempt. Don't be imposed upon.—Adv.
